

SMILE_METER

Instagram filter

You must have used Instagram once in your life, have you noticed that you see a variety of Instagram filters when uploading an image. These filters when uploading an image. These filters are designed to improve the quality of the image. These filters are an example of complex machine learning algorithms that are deployed in production to serve Instagram. So if these filters are created by machine learning algorithms, it means that we can also create Instagram filters with python.